Recent initiatives involving new methods for fostering greater citizen participation in European countries have attracted much attention. Yet new forms of participation have also emerged in other countries and regions around the world. Our Exploring Worldwide Democratic Innovations Report puts the spotlight on these innovations and the lessons we can learn from them.

09:00 - 09:30 Registration

09:30 - 10:45 Global democratic innovations: lessons for the EU

Martin's Amber/Bronze Room, First floor

What can EU member states learn from democratic innovations in other parts of the world? This session explores the findings of our report and some of the key lessons emerging for our ten case studies. It will also look at the role of new civic participation in Ukraine's resistance to the Russian invasion.

Speakers:

- Richard Youngs, Senior Researcher Carnegie Europe & EDH Co-ordinator
- Colin Scicluna, Head of Cabinet for European Commission VP for Democracy & Demography (TBC)
- Olga Burlyyk, Assistant Professor at the University of Amsterdam

Moderated by Lizza Bomassi, Deputy Director Carnegie Europe

10:45 - 11:15 Coffee break

11:15 - 12:30 Scaling-up & systematisation: Moving away from experimentation

Martin's Amber/Bronze Room, First floor

This session will delve into some of the case studies from our project and examine innovations in select countries and regions around the world. It will also feature short videos from our researchers looking at innovations in Asia and Africa.
